

Cailen Wevodau

Cailen Cecil Wevodau was born and raised in Thurston County. She is a graduate of Yelm High School, the University of Washington, and the Texas Tech University School of Law. After beginning her legal career in private practice, Cailen turned to public service in 2008. Cailen worked as a deputy prosecuting attorney in Lewis County before joining the Thurston County Prosecutor's Office in 2010. Cailen has served over six years as a prosecutor with the Thurston County Domestic Violence Team and has been a lead for the Thurston County Felony Domestic Violence Unit. She currently supervises her office's misdemeanor team. Cailen's community service work includes: Together Board Member, Yelm Rotary Club Member, Yelm Community Services Volunteer, Thurston County Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Task Force Member (former chair), and has been a member of the Thurston County Family Justice Center Community Coordinated Response Team (former chair). In 2017, Cailen was the recipient of the Washington State Bar Association Local Hero Award.

Cailen Cecil Wevodau

Deputy Prosecuting Attorney

Misdemeanor Team Leader

Thurston County Prosecuting Attorney's Office

2000 Lakeridge Dr. SW

Olympia, WA 98502

Phone: (360) 786-5540 x6258

Fax: (360) 754-3358