

Sgt. Dorothy Kim

Sergeant Dorothy Kim has been a Seattle Police Officer for twenty-four years. She was assigned to patrol for eighteen years which included assignments in the mountain bike squad and community police team. During that time, she was also an undercover vice decoy, part of arrest teams for proactive narcotics investigations and an Integrated Tactics instructor. Sergeant Kim was promoted in August 2014 and was assigned to the Southwest Precinct as a patrol sergeant. In March of 2015, Sergeant Kim transferred to the Domestic Violence unit, supervising the Misdemeanor and Elder Crimes Detectives and the officers serving DV protection orders. Sergeant Kim is now a law enforcement partner with the Regional Domestic Violence Firearms Enforcement Unit and the supervisor of the newly formed Seattle Police Department's DV Order Service and Firearms Recovery Unit.
